Happy Easter to you all!

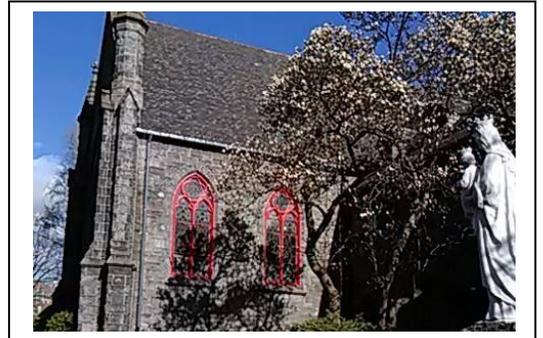

It certainly looks like Spring but pretty cool for April. Such a beautiful and wondrous time with new growth in nature and our furry and feathery friends. From a homily we had recently, how we are all at that Last Supper, how anyone of us can and do walk away from Jesus our center. The early Church was very fragile and it continues to be very fragile but if we keep our eyes fixed on the "Fire of Mercy, then we all come together in the flames of His Love".

Our Triduum was celebrated by Father Allen Moran, OP and diocesan Deacon Sam Bellafiore. Father works in the Provincial's Office at St. Vincent Ferrer in Manhattan.

The tragic news of Notre Dame's fire has shaken and united the world. After surviving the French Revolution and WW II to have this happen now... It just proves, I guess, that nothing on this earth lasts forever. We think of our own Monastery, celebrating 130 years in Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and in service to the Church and you, God's people.

As Psalm 19a says:

Day to day pours forth speech
And night unto night makes known the message
no speech, nor words,
yet their voice goes out through all the earth
And their words to the end of the world.

Praying with Christ and in Christ we can reach out to the ends of the earth.

We were privileged to have the Knight of Columbus, Brian Caufield bring the relic of St John Vianney to us to venerate. His body is incorrupt but the heart was removed. "The Heart of a Priest" is touring throughout the country and New York. How precious this is, especially in this time of priestly scandal. We continue to support and pray for all our priests. No priest, no Eucharist, as I think Mother Teresa used to say this.

RETURN ADDRESS REQUESTED

The Juvenile Prison that used to be adjacent to our property has been demolished and the city is planning to build five hi-rise apartments within a five year period. Housing is such a great need here in the city. We look forward to meeting some of our new neighbors and possible vocations.

We invite you to our Corpus Christi celebration on June 23rd at 2:00PM!

Thank you for your generosity to us. Know that we keep you all before Jesus in our prayers.

The CFR TWINS! Fathers Innocent and Angelus Montgomery who say Mass for us on Sunday...not together of course- too confusing
