Dear Family and Friends,

Is:21 “On the watchtower O my Lord I stand constantly by day through all the watches of the night. Watchman how much longer – If you ask, ask, come back again”

We write this with grateful hearts to the Lord for sustaining us and you and for all the good people who have put their lives on the line to care for us. Sadly, we still remain closed to the public. This is hard for us and for our people who are accustomed to pray before Jesus. As we come together during the day to pray as Community, know that you are all in our hearts and our thoughts. We grieve with you for those who have lost their lives, sometimes without benefit of family and Church and we pray for all those who will die without the Sacraments and leave the rest to a merciful God!

Our Eternal Father speaks to each of us:
Come back to your Father! I love you and I made you, each and every one of you. Don't distance yourself from me. I could have made everyone the same, like “cookie cutter “people but I made each of you unique. You know how no one has the same fingerprint. Well each of you was chosen by me to exist in this place and time, to be a special Child of God, with your own looks, your own gifts and talents that I gave you. “Why”, you say? So that you could help each other, learn to live with each other and be with me one day in heaven. I am your Father! I worry about my children. What will it take for you to understand? I sent you my Son, Jesus, who gave His life so you could all have a taste of heaven on earth. You all have my Divine Life in your souls. You are all mine already, through the gift of my Love -

RETURN ADDRESS REQUESTED

the Holy Spirit! Is this too hard to understand that I your Father, who am God, love each one of you as my child? Take your wounds to my Son Jesus, enter in through His hands, His feet and His side and find the Peace that only I can give. Go to Mary. Don't you think she cried out as she watched Jesus torn apart and dying most painfully. A mother's love understands pain and loss and she is equally YOUR mother, each and everyone of you!

We pray for prudence and wisdom in our Election.

Your loving and grateful sisters
